Mark Hoban Joins Lazard as Managing Director in the Financial Sponsors Group

NEW YORK – September 29, 2026 – Lazard, Inc. (NYSE: LAZ) announced that Mark Hoban has joined the firm as a Managing Director in its Financial Sponsors Group, based in New York.

In this role, Mark will cover large-cap private equity firms and alternative asset managers, advising clients across M&A, secondaries, equity offerings, restructuring and liability management, and debt capital raising.

“Mark's arrival is a strong addition to our Financial Sponsors Group. He brings deep, sponsor-focused relationships and a track record advising leading private equity firms and alternative asset managers across M&A, secondaries, equity offerings, and debt financings,” said Adam Cady, Global Head of Financial Sponsors at Lazard. “His experience strengthens the coverage we can offer clients as they navigate an active and increasingly complex market.”

Mark joins Lazard from Bank of America, where he was a Managing Director covering large-cap private equity firms and alternative asset managers. He led deal execution for sponsor transactions across products including M&A advisory, equity offerings, and financing for leveraged buyouts.

“Lazard's independence and the depth of its advisory platform have long stood out to me,” said Mark Hoban. “Clients are operating in a market that demands creativity across M&A, financing, and capital markets, and I look forward to helping them navigate what lies ahead.”

Mark holds an M.B.A. from Emory University's Goizueta Business School and a B.S. in Economics from Oglethorpe University.
